

In 2015, the IGFOA affirmed its decision to abstain from advocacy on or for specific outcomes of legislative proposals. The Illinois Municipal League provides support to the IGFOA by providing legislative information that may be of interest to IGFOA members. In accordance with its policy, IGFOA takes no position on legislative information disseminated, neither encouraging or discouraging action, and leaving the decision on how to proceed with individual members.