

Corinne Larson
Associate Director
Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc.
(212) 272-2683
clarson@bear.com

Ms. Larson is an associate director with Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc. in the Pension, Endowment, and Foundation Services Group. She is responsible for building and maintaining relationships, managing the marketing function, and researching trends in this market. Prior to joining Bear Stearns, Ms. Larson was a vice president with MBIA Asset Management where she managed the marketing and client service function for the firm's individual account management programs. Previously, Ms. Larson served as assistant director in the Research Center of the Government Finance Officers Association where she was responsible for managing the association's cash management programs. She is an advisor on GFOA's Standing Committee on Cash Management and was formerly an advisor on GFOA's Committee on Retirement and Benefits Administration. Ms. Larson is the author of numerous publications, including Investing Public Funds, Second Edition. Besides her work with the GFOA, Ms. Larson has contributed chapters on local government cash management and investing for textbooks published by the World Bank and the International City/County Managers Association. In addition, she has more than ten years of experience in corporate treasury management. Ms. Larson holds the designation of Certified Treasury Professional through the Association for Financial Professionals and sits on the association's Editorial Advisory Board for its professional journal, AFP Exchange. She received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Indiana University and her Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Notre Dame, and holds a Series 7 license from the NASD.