

Emlyn Neuman-Javornik is responsible for planning, administering and supervising investigations of potential fraud in government entities, private industry, and not-for-profit entities. Ms. Neuman-Javornik has supervised the investigations of a number of governmental entities involving embezzlement of government funds, misuse of government assets, and use of governmental assets for personal gain. In addition to her investigative experience, Ms. Neuman-Javornik has more than 12 years experience conducting and supervising financial and compliance audits as an employee of the State of Montana Legislative Auditor's Office.