

David A. Richardson
Finance Director and Treasurer
Village of Streamwood

Mr. Richardson has been in his current position since 1984. From 1977 to 1984, he served as a manager for a Wheaton based CPA firm specializing in providing audit services to local governments.

Dave has an undergraduate accounting degree from Illinois State University and a master's degree in public administration from Roosevelt University. He also is a certified public accountant (CPA) and a Certified Public Finance Officer.

Mr. Richardson is a member of the American Institute of CPAs, the Illinois CPA Society, the Government Finance Officers Association of the United States and Canada and the Illinois Government Finance Officers Association (IGFOA). He is a past member of IGFOA's Executive Board.