

Scott M. Day, President of Day & Robert, P.C., attended Loyola University of Chicago School of Law and graduated in 1981. From 1981 to 1984, he served as an Assistant DuPage County State's Attorney under Mike Fitzsimmons. Mr. Day left the public sector in 1984, and since that time has focused his practice on eminent domain work, zoning and commercial real estate litigation.