

Stephanie A. Posey

Ms. Posey received her undergraduate degree from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1996 and her Juris Doctor from IIT-Chicago Kent College of Law in 1999. Ms. Posey has represented a variety of public entities, including school districts, fire and police districts and municipalities. She concentrates her practice in the areas of school law, local government law and labor and employment matters. She is a member of the Illinois bar and the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois.

Ms. Posey's experience in school law has included representing the Chicago Public Schools as a hearing officer for student expulsions and as prosecutor for employee discipline and tenured teacher discharge cases. In addition to employee and student matters, she has advised her other school district clients in matters relating to student and personnel records, school annexations, school finance and the development of various school policies.

Prior to joining Ancel Glink, Ms. Posey predominantly represented fire and police districts. She has experience managing public employee grievance and arbitration matters and has counseled clients regarding the passing of public finance referendums. She also participated in collective bargaining negotiations involving various fire and police unions.

Ms. Posey is also an active member of professional organizations such as the Illinois State Bar Association and the Chicago Bar Association.
