

Tina M. Smigielski, Certified Public Accountant, is the Finance Director for the Village of Gurnee. Ms. Smigielski is responsible for the planning, coordination, and supervision of activities relating to the Village's Finance Department including: accounting, accounts payables, accounts receivables, auditing, budget, financial reporting, payroll, purchasing, revenue collection, risk management, treasury operations, and water billing.

Before joining Gurnee, Ms. Smigielski served as the Illinois Toll Highway Authority's Controller. In the late 1990's, Ms. Smigielski worked for the Chicago Park District the as Director of the Office of Budget & Management. During that time, she served as Chairman to the City of Chicago's Tax Increment Financing approval committee. Early in her professional career, Ms. Smigielski worked as an Investment Banker structuring bond issues for local governments. Ms. Smigielski holds a B.A. from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, a M.Ed., from the University of Illinois at Chicago, and a Certificate in Accounting, University College, Northwestern University.

Ms. Smigielski sits on the Illinois Government Finance Officers (IGFOA) Technical Accounting Review Committee (TARC). She is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Illinois Society of CPAs, the Government Finance Officers Association, Illinois and National Chapters, American Payroll Association, Illinois Municipal Treasurer's Association, and Women in Public Finance. She also serves as adjunct accounting faculty for Robert Morris College.