

IGFOA GROWTH AND ENGAGEMENT NETWORK (GEN)
PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT SEMINAR

July 10, 2025 (Originally scheduled for July 17)

PMA Securities, LLC, 2135 City Gate Lane, 7th Floor, Naperville, IL 60563

AGENDA

11:30 AM – 12:10 PM CHECK-IN AND NETWORKING

12:10 – 12:15 PM WELCOME AND INTRODUCTIONS; LUNCH BEGINS

Andrew Kim, Director, PMA Securities, LLC and Co-Chair of IGFOA GEN

12:15 – 1:15 PM Embracing Change: The art of adaptability in life and in the market place

Speaker: Kendra Shelland – Vice President, PMA Asset Management

Description:

Change is constant, whether it involves circumstances, goals and ambitions, outlook, or market dynamics. Growth and adaptability are essential skills for continuous development in both life and business. This seminar will begin with the personal story of Kendra Shelland, and how adaptability, motivation, and creativity propelled her journey from the suburbs of Minneapolis to a trading desk in New York City, and back again, all while pursuing her ever-evolving dreams. The seminar will then transition to strategies for navigating the constantly changing economic environment and marketplace.

Learning Objectives:

Audience members will:

1. Increase adaptability whether internally directed or externally influenced
2. Understand leading economic indicators in the market
3. Identify impacts of economic and market data

CPE: 1 hour Field of Study: Personal Development – Non-Technical Level: Basic

1:15 – 1:20 PM CLOSING REMARKS

Andrew Brown, Finance Director, Village of Palatine and Chair of IGFOA GEN