

Marianne Renner

Leadership Coach, Speaker, Trainer

Marianne Renner is a transformational leadership coach and keynote speaker. She has helped thousands of leaders uncover mental narratives that keep them stuck in self-imposed barriers to achievement.

Two-time author of the Chaos to Clarity Success Journal and Stop Thinking Like an Employee, Marianne has been described as dynamic, engaging, and thought-provoking.

Her clients have ranged from multi-billion-dollar organizations to small business entrepreneurs, all with the common desire to maximize their potential.

With a Master's Degree in Integrated Marketing Communications, Marianne has spent years studying human behavior and the "WHY" behind decisions people make.

She is a member of the Chairman's Advisory Panel for CASA Kane County for abused and neglected children. She's a past board member for Simply Destinee youth empowerment program and former chair-person for the Quad County Urban League Women's Empower Summit.
